Agency details

Agency number: 505
Start date: c. 1990
End date: 2004
Creation:
Abolition: 21 June 2004 Council meeting (resolution CL04/81).

Administrative history note:
At the 1 August 1990 meeting of the Executive Committee of the Faculty of Commerce & Economics, the Dean advised that the creation of an Asian Studies Unit within the faculty had been approved by the Vice-Chancellor. The Unit was administratively part of the Dean’s Unit and was headed by Dr W. R. Purcell. On 5 June 1995 Council approved a change in name and status for the Unit and thus the School of Asian Business and Language Studies replaced the Unit from this date (resolution CL95/40).
On 23 February 1998 Council gave its approval to a change in name of the school to the School of International Business, effective 1 January 1998 (resolution CL98/15).
On 21 June 2004 Council resolved to disestablish the schools of Industrial Relations and Organisational Behaviour and International Business and established a new school, the School of Organisation and Management (resolution CL04/81).
